

District Convention (DCON) 2018

- The Key Club DCON (District Convention) will be in Reno, Nevada, a two-hour drive from Sacramento.
- Key Clubbers from all over California, Nevada and Hawaii will be there.
- It is from Friday afternoon April 13th (leave 3:15 PM) to Sunday morning April 15th. (not Prom weekend)
- Your cost would be $95 and Valley Key Club would pay the rest (from our fundraisers)
- You must be a paid National Key Club member to attend DCON. You can still pay the dues ($12)

Included are:

- Transportation
- Two nights in a hotel
- A free conference T-shirt
- Free conference souvenirs
- Saturday breakfast, lunch and dinner
- Sunday breakfast
- Governor's Ball on Saturday night / Alternative game rooms available as well

WHY ATTEND?

- Attend Leadership Development Workshops.
- Attend Life Skills and College Planning Workshops.
- Participate in election of District Officers, and vote on District By-laws.
- See exciting service project and fundraising Ideas.
- Network with diverse student leaders from three states.

Valley Key Club members who will get first consideration (this does not mean that others will not have a chance, just that these will be the criteria for deciding in the case of limited spaces).

- Seniors and Juniors
- Board members or Committee leaders or people who plan to run for office in March
- Those who have participated in different aspects of the club, including at least 2 community service events.
- Those who have participated in a club fundraiser